moving the sick man and his family to the house rented by the ladies on John street, No. 409.
D. E. Geyer, the Third avenue tailor, left yesterday for the North. When he returns he will bring Mrs. Geyer with him.
John Ward and Coleman Davis had a fight on Railroad avenue yesterday evening. They had fought but one round when Officers Eanes and Tinsley broke into the ring and arrested the principals.

Frances Isabel and Sarah Reed had an Amazonian tilt on Railroad avenue last night. They were arrested by Officer Eanes and bailed for appearance this morning.

Officer Trout took Stewart Marshall to the station-house for being drunk on the platform at the depot. He also ran in Dennis Connor on a similar charge.

Officer Creasy has returned from his trip to Texas and will return to duty today.

Chief Morris wants some able-bodied men to act as policemen during the holidays.

Mayor Evans states that the firing of torpedoes and fire crackers will be permitted from noon to day until noon on Friday. Roman candles and sky rockets will also be allowed if not shot at people or horses.

A committee of the board of fire underwriters has asked the mayor to prohibit the shooting of crackers, sky rockets and other fireworks. He has declined, however, to interfere with the fun of the young ones.

Do not place your orders for blank books for 1891 until after you have examined our work and prices. Hammond's Printing Works and Book Bindery, 110 Jefferson street; telephone 125.
